Council Family Beam Sofa

The Council Family Beam is an addition to the Council Family series and is the ideal seating option for relaxed furnishing in a professional setting. It is available in a graphite powder-coated finish, and its durable construction and quality materials, is designed to withstand the rigors of daily use. The seat and back can be upholstered in textile, leather, or a combination of both, and its elegant shape can be further accentuated by selecting different colors or materials for the interior and exterior surfaces.
